

SURE OF SUCCESS

FINLAY ROSS WILL LEAD HIS TICKET.

Chairman Brubaker Positive of the Success of the Whole Republican Ticket—The Average Majority Will be 500—Everyone is Working in Harmony, all Personal Differences Laid Aside—Demo-Pop Ticket Will be Buried Under an Avalanche of Republican Votes—Larger Portion of Women for the Ticket.

Mr. J. A. Brubaker, chairman of the city Republican central committee, was seen yesterday. When asked to prognosticate on the result of the coming municipal campaign, he leaned back in his office chair and gave a hearty laugh. "Why, we will elect every man on our ticket by an average majority of 500. This, of course, includes the candidates for school board and the council."

"Pauline Ross will run considerably ahead of the ticket. There is absolutely no possible chance for defeat. I have figured on the result and have had the assistance of the best posted men in the party to help me. I will give you what we consider the minimum majority. Mr. Ross will have 1,500 more votes than Mr. Young. As I said before, the rest of the ticket will have an average majority of 500."

"The opposition, with their combined forces, are having dissemination of a serious nature in their ranks. They are having so much to say that they cannot possibly mend the break. There is harmony among the Republicans and we have got every Republican vote registered. Everything is running along as smooth as a brook. The convention was especially fortunate in the selection of the precinct and ward committees. They worked unceasingly and consequently we have got the first vote registered. But the most important thing is, we have got an exceptionally strong and winning ticket. Every man is so well known for his integrity and business sagacity that it would be necessary to do any campaigning. But to make sure we are working the same as if we really had a hard battle before us."

"The hardest fight the Populists will make will be in the Second ward, that being the home ward of each candidate, they are centering their forces in this ward. We will carry this ward by 200 at the very lowest estimation. The Fourth will be the banner ward, with the Third a close second."

"The women vote is the hardest to figure on, but we know that we have the larger portion of them with us. Continuing, Mr. Brubaker said: "No, sir, we cannot lose. This is a Republican city and only once in the twenty-seven years of its existence has it gone over to the other side. We have a business man, who is a business man, at the head of our ticket. If the people want an economical administration, why, they will vote for him. And there is no question but that they will."

CARD FROM MR. APPLING
He Raises His Voice to Nail One of Those Malicious Lies.

The following communication was received yesterday:
To the Editor of the Eagle:
"As there have been circulated rumors that Mr. Findlay Ross, candidate for mayor of our city, has refused to assist old soldiers and has spoken disparagingly of them, I desire to say that as a soldier and member of Eggleston Post 244, Grand Army of the Republic, I want to Mr. Ross and solicit a donation from him to aid the members of the post and that he at once responded and said: 'If this amount does not help you out sufficiently, come back and I will give you more. I want to help the boys all I can when it is deserving.' I will be sustained in this statement by Captain Burgess, who was present at the time."

SOMEbody HAS LIED
And Fennell swears to the Innocence of Mr. Chas. Irwin.

The publication of the following affidavit was requested last night in the interest of Representative Charles Irwin, whose friends say that he has been grossly misrepresented in a Topeka dispatch to the Kansas City Journal, and which was published locally by the papers of Wichita.
Wichita, Kan., March 27, 1897.
State of Kansas, County of Sedgewick, ss.
J. R. Fennell, of lawful age, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he has personally read the statements published in the Wichita Beacon, of March 26, and in the Wichita Eagle, March 27, purporting to be copied from the Kansas City Journal and relating to Senator Lewelling, Representative Irwin and ex-Representative Eckstein; that he is the J. R. Fennell therein referred to; that he has never at any time, nor to any person or persons, made any statement reflecting in any way or to any extent, directly or indirectly upon the uprightness or integrity of Representative Irwin; that affiant has not had any conversation or communication with Mr. Eckstein to attack his integrity, or his absence thereat at any time during the past year, nor at any time since the election of the present legislature of the state of Kansas; nor did he ever say, as Representative Eckstein said, that he would not "put up a cent to a lobbyist"; that he never received any letter from the said Irwin or from any person for said Irwin, advising affiant to enter into a contract with said Eckstein, or with any other person, to "push his claim or he would not get a cent"; that affiant never went to Senator Lewelling, nor to any other person, and "aid him the story"; and that he never said to any person that he had made such statements to Senator Lewelling; that he had a number of conversations with said Irwin about Irwin's claim for injuries;

Cures Talk

"Cures talk" in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as for most medicine. Its great cures recorded in truthful, convincing language of grateful men and women, constitute its most effective advertising. Many of these cures are marvelous. They have won the confidence of the people, have given Hood's Sarsaparilla the largest sale in the world, and have made necessary for its manufacture the greatest laboratory on earth. Hood's Sarsaparilla is known by the cures it has made—cures of scrofula, salt rheum and eczema, cures of rheumatism, neuralgia and weak nerves, cures of dyspepsia, liver troubles, catarrh—cures which prove is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. cure liver, cure blood, cure skin, cure all, cure every, cure easy, cure fast, cure sure, cure 20c.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

A DUMB MAN

Even if attacked by foot-pads cannot cry out for help.
Some people can cry out louder than others.

The same is true in a man's body.
If the Lungs are weak, they call attention to it with a cough.
The Heart, when diseased, calls attention to it with a palpitation.
The Bowels, when diseased, call attention to it with pain and diarrhoea.
The Kidneys are dumb.
When they are sick (at first at least) they usually make a few unimportant symptoms, and the consequence is that we often neglect them.
A simple Headache, a little Nausea, Pain or Soreness in the Back, Restlessness at Night, or a few other trifling symptoms, may be the only call for help your kidneys can give.
What the Kidneys need are
Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills and no one ought to wait till the last ditch is reached before using them.

"Thanks for the Good They Have Done Me."
Atchison, Kan., Feb. 4th, 1897.
I have been troubled with weak back for some time and thinking that your Sparagus Kidney Pills would give me relief, I got a box at Stolls' drug store. I took them according to directions, and find that they do me good. They relieved the passage of my urine and save me the trouble of getting out of bed at night. I can say that anybody who is troubled with kidney trouble, ought to try Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills. Thank you for the good they have done me.
E. BEARD, 1516 S. 7th St., Atchison, Kan.

HOBBS REMEDY CO., Prop's, Chicago.
Dr. Hobbs Pills, For Sale By
CHAS. LAWRENCE DRUGGIST
102 E. Douglas Ave., Wichita, Kans.

that he asked said Irwin what he would charge affiant for securing, or assisting in securing, an award by the legislature for the injuries sustained by affiant; and that said Irwin replied that he would not charge or accept any compensation whatever, but that in his judgment, in securing an award by the legislature for the injuries sustained by affiant, or indirectly, that affiant has never paid, or received, or accepted, or agreed to accept, any value, or character whatever for the services of said Irwin, directly or indirectly; that each and every statement made by Senator Lewelling, of Representative Irwin, contained in said publication, is wholly false and without any foundation in truth.

J. R. FENNELL.
(Seal) THOS. C. LARSON,
Notary Public.
My commission expires July 18, 1899.

SKETCH THAT IS GOOD

Artists Get a Sitting From a Vigorous Arguer on Politics and Religion.
In the show window of Mr. Finlay Ross' furniture store is one of the best pictures ever exhibited in Wichita. It is marked "A Character Sketch," and is a portrait of Mr. Charles Williams, of South Fifth avenue. Mr. Williams has a handsome face with rugged features, which artists delight in and call picturesque, and he is tolerably well known along the border of the city as a man of decided opinions and vigorous, even vehement utterance on political and religious questions. When he mixes in one of the many groups he is met by a crowd of admirers, and his remarks, which are as unanswerable as incomprehensible and result in a scattering of that little crowd.

RUE IS FOR YOUNG

But Young Man's Confidence Enough to Resign His Present Office.
There was a great crowd of George Young's friends at the court house yesterday. The crowd was not large, but like all the crowds of the kind, it was very noisy. The reporter for the Eagle had a tough time of it among them, and not being able to keep up with them in "shoot mouth," all he could do to demonstrate the hold the boys had in him was to bet two to one that Finlay Ross will be elected, and an even bet (a check) that he will carry the Second ward. There are, in reality, some remarkably sensible men who entertain a hallucination that Mr. Ross will lose the Second ward. The fact of the matter is, as patent as daylight, that Finlay Ross will carry every ward in the city and not only that, but will carry every single one of the sixteen precincts. It would not be at all foolish to bet that way. Mr. George Young, however, is not so sure. He is a politician and his friends know it. Everybody knows that Mr. Young is now a councilman from the Second ward. If everybody is so sure that the Second ward is going to elect Ross, why did Mr. Young resign the office which he now holds, so that the people of the Second ward could elect a councilman in his stead? Mr. Young and his Democratic bosses know why he did not resign. They know that his resignation would mean an extra Republican majority in the council, and that would mean a large sum of money for his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected. He has his whole soul set on having him in the mayor's office. So did everybody else in Rue's office at the time but all of them happened to be either Rue's deputies, Dr. Parr, who sued the present Republican city administration for a majority candidate as he is for Mr. Young since the time he ran a man against Capt. John B. Carey and had him beaten by a plurality of nearly 2,500, although he had a large sum of money on his election. Poor Rue will die, or act as if he will, if George Young is not elected